Juan Carlos Navarro, Playoff Final MVP Orange

Juan Carlos Navarro collected the Orange MVP for the Liga Endesa Playoff Final Series 2013/14. The Barcelona shooting-guard wins the award for a record third time after collecting the prize in 2009 and 2011. He becomes the first player to win the award on three separate occasions; moving clear of Arvydas Sabonis and Felipe Reyes who have won it twice

Since making his pro debut Navarro has been a prolific points scorer. This season he broke the 7,500 points barrier. He's currently the 6th all-time highest scorer in the Liga Endesa. The Barcelona captain has also hit over 1,000 three-pointers, becoming only the second player to break this milestone (the only other player to have scored more than 1,000 three-pointers is Alberto Herreros).

STATS: During the Liga Endesa Playoff final series Juan Carlos Navarro averaged 15.5 points, 2.5 assists (received 4.8 fouls) and collected a PE of 13 per game. His biggest points-haul was 19 points in Game 3.

CAREER: Apart from a year-stint at the Memphis Grizzlies (NBA) during the 2007/08 campaign, Juan Carlos Navarro has spent his entire career at FC Barcelona. He is top of the all-time club appearance stats.

FACT: Juan Carlos Navarro is the most successful player still currently playing professionally. The Barcelona captain has won 8 Liga Endesa titles, 6 Copa del Rey trophies, 2 Supercopas, 2 Euroleagues, and 1 Copa Korac. With his country he has also won 1 World Championship, 1 Eurobasket, plus a Silver medal at the 2008 Beijing Olympics and again at the 2012 London Olympics.

HIS DEBUT: He played his first Liga Endesa game at the Palau Blaugrana against CB Granada. Navarro turned quite a few heads on his debut. During his first 10 minutes of pro action, "La Bomba" (named after his trademark floater) Juan Carlos Navarro scored 10 points. Only two players scored more points than the young debutant against CB Granada (legendary player Sasha Djordjevic and Xavi Ferna'ndez).

PERSONAL ACHIEVEMENTS: Juan Carlos Navarro has been included in the All-Liga Endesa team on four occasions. He first appeared in 2005/06. That season saw the Catalan player also collect the MVP award for the regular season. At the 1999 Junior World Championship (playing alongside Gasol, Cabezas, Rau'l, Berni and Bueno, to name a few) he helped Spain to the Gold medal. He was also voted the MVP at the Junior World Championship. The impressive Juan Carlos Navarro has also collected MVP award at three Liga Endesa Playoff final series, two Supercopas and in the Euroleague final. The only MVP award he has yet to win is the Copa del Rey MVP.

NATIONAL TEAM: Since his debut in 2000 Juan Carlos Navarro has been a permanent feature with the Spain national team. He has played a key role for his country during what has been a Golden era for Spain. He was part of the roster that won Gold at the World Championship in Japan, Gold at the Eurobasket in Poland, Silver at the 2008 Beijing Olympics and the 2012 London Olympics, plus a further three medals at the Eurobasket championships held in 2001, 2003 and 2007).
